

CHURCH SOCIETIES

Lost Heavily as Result of Bank's FailureDeath of Bank President May be Investigated—Other Banks are Not Affected—Directors of Trust
Company Severely Criticised

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 28.—So great was the confidence reposed in Frank K. Hipple, late president of the real estate trust company which was yesterday forced to the wall because of the secret business transactions of Mr. Hipple that the institution was virtually the bank of the Presbyterian church. Not only the general assembly which was a large deposit, but even the smallest Sunday school organizations and hundreds of individuals with abiding faith in the integrity of the late president had entrusted their funds and savings to the institution.

"It almost destroys a person's faith in human nature," said H. P. Ford, private secretary to Dr. Alexander Henry, secretary of the board of publication and Sabbath school work of the Presbyterian church. "As treasurer of the trustees of the general assembly, Mr. Hipple had control of over $1,000,000 and as treasurer of the permanent committee on home missions and sustenance in the synod of Pennsylvania and the Presbyterian hospital of this city, other large amounts were at his command."

Since the failure of the trust company it has been learned that only a few months ago the institution was under consideration as a possible depository for the foreign missionary funds of the Presbyterian church. The influence of Mr. Hipple, it is said, might have eventually prevailed. The annual contributions to foreign missions amount to over $1,200,000 and its surplus on hand always equals half that amount.

It is likely that an investigation of the manner in which President Hipple came to his sudden death will now be made. Coroner's Physician, Read of Norristown, admits that Mr. Hipple may have committed suicide. The few friends who attended the private burial of the late president of the trust company on Monday had knowledge of his difficulties but none of them were aware of his greatly involved financial condition. He was not known to have been a stock speculator although financial losses in the Consolidated Lake Superior stock secret trust case, real estate investments seem to have engaged his attention and money almost exclusively. This is borne out through his connections with Adolph Segal and the latter's enterprises.

Late last night Segal, his counsel and district attorney, John C. Bell, held a conference. Mr. Bell said he had been called in by Segal because the preliminary thought it entirely feasible to raise the $3,500,000 needed by the trust company. Mr. Bell said he was in no way connected with the case other than that he might aid in raising the funds necessary to place the company again on a sound basis.

It is the expressed opinion of bankers that the real estate trust company failure does not involve any other banking house in the city. The three depositories for the funds of the trust company were the Franklin National bank, the Market Street National bank and the First National bank. Aside from having deposits of the trust company, it is declared by officials of these institutions that they are in no way involved in the failure. Ellis P. Passmore, cashier of the Franklin National bank, stated that the three institutions and the finance company of Pennsylvania had advanced half a million dollars for current needs.

"The very best form of securities were pledged," he said, "consequently the three banks and the finance company are simply protected."

ASSAULT CASE

Prince Street Stabbing
Affray in CourtVICTIM'S BROTHER
IS ACCUSEDBu' No Testimony to Hold HimTHE DRACUT STAB-
BING CASEAlso On Trial in Police
Court Today

Phoebus Mounoudis was arraigned before Judge Hadley in police court today, on a complaint charging him with assault with intent to kill his brother, Theodore Mounoudis. The case came upon continuance, the wounded man having been at the hospital since the time of the stabbing, which occurred at 105½ Prince street, about three weeks ago.

Deputy Superintendent Welch appeared for the commonwealth, and James E. O'Donnell for the defendant. Before the case went to trial, Deputy Welch told the court a story of Theodore's attempt to escape from the hospital this morning when summoned to appear in court. The deputy gave the impression that Theodore would be a very uncooperative witness.

Counsel for the defendant took exception to the deputy's remarks and said that Theodore did not try to escape but went direct to his lawyer's office.

The story of Theodore's condition before and after he was taken to the hospital, was related by doctors who attended him, including Dr. P. Sullivan, of the ambulance and Dr. Thos. R. Smith of the Lowell hospital to which institution the wounded man was removed.

The government's case was put on in a rather unusual way, the complainant not being called until other witnesses for the prosecution had been heard. Witnesses in question did not know anything about the stabbing.

Theodore Mounoudis, with very weak today and staggered from the seat for witnesses to the witness stand and supported himself on the rail. He declared that he had no trouble whatever with his brother and that the latter did not do the stabbing. He said he was attacked in the street by five men and one of them stabbed him. He did not know who his assailants were, and would not be able to identify them. It was dark at the time.

Inspector Latham said he stated the premises occupied by Theodore and his brother Phoebus. He visited Theodore's room. There was blood on the floor, he said, and the wall was spattered with blood.

Mrs. Emma Michael who lives in Suffolk block, testified that on the morning after the night of the stabbing while passing through the block she heard somebody scratch a match in room 16, a room which she knew was without a lawful tenant. She opened the door and there was a man there. She identified the defendant as the man she saw in the room.

A Greek barber who rooms in Suffolk block said he shaved Phoebus on the day after Theodore was stabbed. He shaved him in his room, because, he said, Phoebus told him he did not want to go to his shop, because he did not want people to see him to question him. He told the barber that he was going away and when questioned further by witness as to the stabbing Phoebus said: "Will you later?"

Lieut. David J. Donaldson, who arrested Phoebus, told of the arrest and the conversation which he had had with the prisoner. Lieut. Donaldson was assisted in making the arrest by Special Officer Regis.

At the police station Phoebus said he had gone to Lynn the night before, that he came back on the following day. Had heard that his brother had been stabbed and had asked Officer Regis was looking for him. Questioned by the police defendant said he had gone to and returned from Lynn via Boston. The fare, he said, was 61 cents each way. Searched at police station, $13 was found in a belt which he wore.

The government rested its case at the conclusion of Lieut. Donaldson's testimony, and Mr. O'Donnell asked for the discharge of the defendant on the ground that the government had not proven its case in any way.

Judge Hadley discharged the defendant. He said if the defendant was guilty the brother who was stabbed had committed the vilest kind of perjury.

HEADLESS BODY

Identified as That of
Ike Harris

MADISON, Conn., Aug. 28.—The headless body of a man found on the beach here the day before yesterday has been identified as that of Ike Harris of New York city, who jumped overboard from a South line steamer a week ago. The two brothers came here with Harris' coat which was found on the steamer. The cloth of the coat and that of the trousers on the body was identical. Harris was a cloak designer and leaves a widow and three children.

DOUBLE EVENT

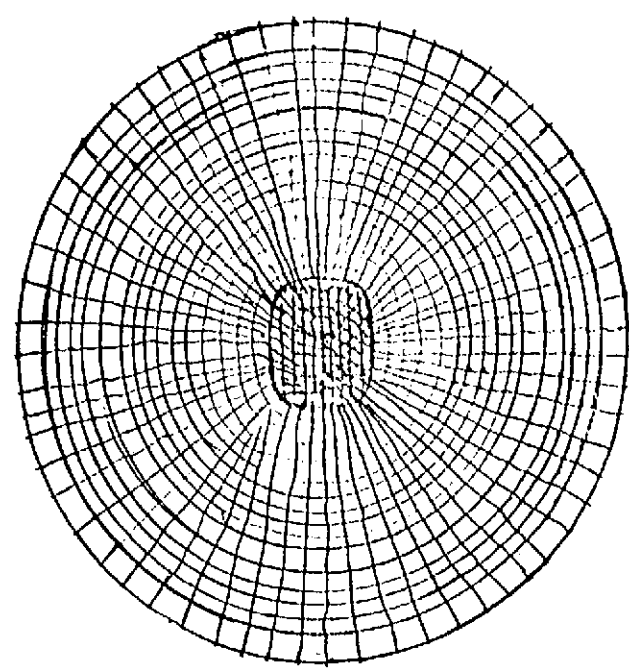

MR. AND MRS. WILFRED CORDEAU
CELEBRATE

A double anniversary celebration was held last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Cordeau, 75 Lakeview ave., the occasion being the birthday of Mrs. Cordeau and the 15th anniversary of the marriage of the couple. A large number of friends called on the happy couple to tender their congratulations and Mr. and Mrs. Cordeau were the recipients of many pretty gifts from their friends.

Among the guests was Mr. Harold Cordeau of Lawrence. The evening was pleasantly passed with music and games while a dainty lunch was served.

DISTURBED THE PEACE

William F. Manchester was in police court again today, making his third appearance within a few weeks. In conjunction with Edward F. Moran he was charged with disturbing the peace. He pleaded guilty as did Moran. They were arrested by Lieut. Smith in Central street, last night. They engaged in an altercation in a pool room, came to blows and carried their fight into the street.

pite the fact that the chief has got orders not to use them he intends to discontinue them if a fire breaks out where it will be necessary to use the nets. He believes that it will be better to do away with them than cause the loss of life. The purchasing agent claims to be able to get the same nets at $19 a net, cheaper, making a saving of $20.

In speaking with a representative of The Sun this morning, Mr. Donnelly said he did not know what was going to be done with the nets, but they were ready for delivery but had not been delivered up to the present time, however, Chief Hooper has not received any orders to use the nets he has on hand.

DOESN'T FAVOR SCALING LADDERS

There has been considerable talk of late relative to the use of scaling ladders by the fire department, but Chief Hooper does not approve of the idea and says that they would be useless as well

PRES. CUMMINGS

Annual Address Before the
A. O. H. Convention

Matthew Cummings, state president of the A. O. H., in his address to the state convention in session in Fall River, spoke in highly commendable terms of the past year and particularly in the past two years, and particularly in the past year, that public meetings be held in every county in this state, and that our best public speakers in the order be invited to address such meetings. He also said that the racial pride of our citizens should be carefully in our people and that the principles of our order be explained and given to the public. If such efforts are lived up to there will be no excuse for a poor attendance at our meetings, and much good will be the result.

LADIES' AUXILIARY.

I am pleased to report that the ladies' auxiliary is hereafter empowered to elect its own officers, levy and collect its own funds, and disburse its own funds. They will, however, be required to pay merchandise tax, proportionate share of the cost of the National Convention, and all charter fees to the A. O. H. The auxiliary will remain subject to the approval of the national president.

It is a pleasure to be able to report that the organization of the ladies' auxiliary is rapidly increasing in this state. The work of this order is not limited to attending meetings, but in the homes of our people much good can be done by the wives and mothers in instructing their children in the principles which we advocate.

The cause we have should be instilled in the hearts of those of tender years, assuring them that those who will follow will be imbued with the old enthusiasm, needed to inspire the souls of those who may be called on in future days to serve in the cause of faith and fatherland. Let them teach their children the ways from which they spring in the future all our state officers should be imbued with a desire to achieve great things by telling them the history of the past. Above all, they should teach their children to uphold one another, and never let division or distrust divide their ranks.

MILITARY

I am very glad to report that we have in this state two fully equipped military regiments and eight independent companies, making a total of 22 companies, under the command of the military companies connected with the order, according to the last report, were affiliated with the Ancient Order of Hibernians in Massachusetts.

The national convention at Saratoga instructed the national president to appoint an adjutant-general in each division, after his election, the adjutant to have without salary. It shall be obligatory on the commissioned officers of each regiment, battalion and company to report the standing of their respective companies to the adjutant-general, to be furnished by said adjutant-general. The adjutant-general of the Ancient Order of Hibernians has my hearty support and I am ever ready to aid the department in every possible way that is consistent with the best possible interests of the A. O. H.

$7,000,000 FAILURE

Real Estate Trust Co. Closed Its Doors

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 28. — The failure of the Real Estate Trust Co. of Philadelphia, one of the largest real estate companies in the city, was announced today. The company, which had a capital of $7,000,000, had been in operation for several years, but had been unable to meet its obligations. The failure was the result of a combination of factors, including a sharp decline in the real estate market and a lack of sufficient funds to meet the company's needs. The company's assets are being liquidated, and its creditors are being notified of the situation.

ANOTHER ARREST

In Connection With Alleged Bribery of Juror

BOSTON, Aug. 28. — Walter M. Clark and William W. Barker were taken into custody today by the Boston police. Clark, who was charged with the bribery of a juror in the case of the late John Smith, was arrested at his home. Barker, who was charged with the same offense, was arrested at a hotel. The police are investigating the case, and it is expected that more arrests will be made in the near future.

The Allenburys' Foods

Best For All Babies

When it is necessary to provide for the baby a substitute for the mother's milk, get The Allenburys' Foods—the nearest approach to breast milk of any of the artificial foods.

The Allenburys' system is the sensible system of infant feeding. It comprises a series of three foods adapted to the different periods of the child's growth. This is why thousands of babies thrive so well on these foods. Every mother can understand that a food suitable for a baby of six months would not do for a baby of one month, or that the food that nourishes a baby of one month would not be sufficient for the child of six months. It is the realization of this scientific fact—the food must change as the baby progresses—that has made The Allenburys' Foods superior to all other artificial foods.

I am writing to say how very pleased I am with your Food. Baby is in splendid condition and by following the instructions in your book we have never once had to call a doctor for our little baby since her birth.

With the exception of the first four weeks of her life she has been brought up entirely on The Allenburys' Foods, commencing with No. 1. I think a better recommendation of your Food could not be given than the living example of our child.

TENNIS CONTEST

WILLIAM J. CLOTHIER, WHO DEFEATED BEHR IN THE TENNIS FINALS AT NEWPORT YESTERDAY.

Clother of Philadelphia Holds the Title

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 29.—The fine weather which has favored the national law tennis championships this year, continued today when the challenge round was played between Beahm C. Wright of Boston, the present title holder, and William J. Clothier of Philadelphia who yesterday won the all comers tournament. It was Wright's first defense of the challenge round in the national tournament. Both have been intimate friends for many years and met last year in the finals of the all comers tournament. Wright winning easily and defeating Holcomb Ward of Orange, N. J., for the championship. That Wright not sustained an injury to his hand last spring he would have been a strong favorite before the match began today. Whether he had succeeded in getting back into the form which he had reached before the injury was the question which puzzled those who followed the game. The case with which Clothier won the matches in the present tournament which gave him the right of challenge. Nearly all his contests were straight set affairs and but few went more than three or four games. It was the absence of fatiguing matches among those he has played during the past week which made the match today one of some doubt. The event proved so attractive that one of the largest crowds in years thronged to the Casino this morning.

POLITICAL NOTES

More Candidates are Looming Up

AMES AND DUNBAR AT OUTING

Why Mr. O'Sullivan Balked on Badges

William Traft Shipped Informer. The fact that he is not a candidate for the position of chief of deeds and he sought to know.

Rep. John J. McManis has decided to be the democratic candidate for senator in the eighth district. He was twice elected to the house in a strong republican district. President Cole placed him on the committee on public health which he proved to be a valuable member. On the matter of appropriating $100,000 to prevent the pollution of the Merrimack river, through his efforts action was postponed and the city of Lowell was saved the payment of its proportionate share of the whole amount. Rep. McManis is well known and universally popular and will be a strong candidate.

Congressman Ames and Frank E. Dunbar are at the outing of the Lawrence and Haverhill clerks at Carobee Lake park today and will attend the outing of the Lowell and Nashua clerks at the same place tomorrow. There's nothing doing today, nothing that will necessitate affidavits, oaths or any ancient, nebulous allegations.

NIGHT EDITION

TO START BUSINESS

Directors of Real Estate Trust Co. Confer

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 28.—At the conclusion of a protracted conference with the directors of the Real Estate Trust Co., this afternoon Receiver Earle said that in his estimation the receivership will be only temporary and that the bank will be able to resume business at an early day. He said it would take several days before he will be able to make a definite statement. He spoke optimistically and said he did not think the failure would prove to be as bad as it at first looked.

Regarding the condition of trusts in the custody of the company Mr. Earle said: "While I have not had an opportunity to examine the books I have every reason to believe that all trust funds are intact."

It was reported that an effort was being made to help out the bank with the view to resuming it within 48 hours but it was denied by the directors of the larger banks. Some directors, however, have not abandoned hope of accomplishing this object and have been using their personal influence with the object of raising the required $250,000 to meet a similar amount subscribed by the clearing house association.

don yesterday and thus make up the deficiency of $7,000,000 in the bank's funds. One prominent banker subscribed $500,000 today and others are willing to advance large sums.

The bank's failure continues to be the sensation of the hour and is the general topic of discussion everywhere. A large but orderly crowd surrounded the building and except for an occasional outbreak from some excited individuals is entirely kept in check by the police. Receiver Earle, this afternoon qualified as receiver. He filed a bond of $1,000,000 and immediately went to the company's offices, where he took charge and called the directors into conference.

NO ATTACHMENT.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Justice Glendon today granted an attachment of $5,000 against the property in this city belonging to the Real Estate Trust Co. of Philadelphia. In favor of William A. Head & Co. and First & Co. a syndicate manager. The attachment was levied against any property or funds the Trust Co. has on deposit with the bank of New York, it local correspondent.

GOT TWO YEARS

Stiff Sentence in the Jury Bribery Case

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—Dr. Walter M. Clark, charged with contempt of court in attempting to bribe a juror sitting in the Dr. Sinclair manslaughter trial was sentenced to two years in hard labor, by Judge Harris in the Suffolk county criminal court today. James R. and William Washington, both colored men, who were arrested in connection with the contempt proceedings were fined $50 by the court.

In sentencing Clark to prison, Judge

Harris said that the bribery scheme was the plan of Clark, who was a personal friend of Dr. Sinclair and the attempt to bribe about a disengagement by the jury was for the purpose of counteracting the testimony which he had given at the trial as a witness for the prosecution.

Judge Harris said that in his opinion Clark and Washington had carefully and deliberately permitted themselves to become the tools of Clark and he felt it necessary as a warning to impose a fine of $50 in each case.

Y. M. C. I. NOTES.

The members of the Young Men's Catholic Institute of Belvidere held their regular meeting at their rooms on Stackpole street last evening. President Farrington presided and there was an unusually large attendance of members.

The board of trustees reported that the work of repairing the bowling alleys, pool tables, etc., would be begun immediately. This information was encouraging as the members realize that when the few requisite repairs are completed the Y. M. C. I. alleys will compare favorably with, if not wholly surpass, those of any other society in Lowell. The work is being placed in the hands of a reliable city firm, and a satisfactory result is assured.

The members are discussing with interest the feasibility of holding a suitable in the early fall. Entertainments given under the auspices of the Y. M. C. I. have always been successful from both social and financial standpoints, and judging from the keen interest displayed in the proposed social, it will be one of the most successful in the history of the society.

Vice-President Charles P. Conroy has returned from Salisbury beach and will leave for New York on Wednesday next.

Mr. Peter H. Rogers, the popular recording secretary of the Y. M. C. I., was at his desk last evening, looking as brown as a berry, after having spent

BRYAN ARRIVES

Nebraska's Favorite Son Reaches New York Harbor

Big Rush of Gaily Decorated Craft of All Descriptions to Greet the Distinguished Democrat at Quarantine—Steamship Prinzess Irene Sighted Off Fire Island This Afternoon—Plans for the Reception

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Hundreds of persons are in town today from all sections to attend the reception to William J. Bryan and the signs are that Mr. Bryan will get one of the most hearty greetings that his followers have ever given him.

Mr. Bryan will leave the steamship Prinzess Irene at quarantine, according to the plans and will there be welcomed by Norman Mack, Lewis Nixon, Mayor Brown of Lincoln, Neb., and Harry W. Walker, on board the yacht Ulm, belonging to E. F. Goller, of St. Louis. He will then go aboard a tug chartered by the Nebraska delegation to enable him to shake hands with his "home folks" after which he will return to the yacht. It is planned to have the yacht run up Long Island Sound and anchor for the night off the home of Wm. Hope, president of the Commercial Travelers Anti-trust league at Rye, N. Y. Mr. Bryan, it is stated, will not leave the vessel. Tomorrow the yacht will return in time to the harbor, passed Sandy Hook bound in, at 4 p.m. and take part in the parade.

RUSH TO WELCOME.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—When the news got around that the Prinzess Irene with Mr. Bryan on board had been sighted off Fire Island there was a rush of those who had chartered tugs and steamers to get aboard as soon as they could. In an hour several boats with all flags flying were standing down the harbor. The official reception boat was waiting off the Atlantic Yacht club pier, near Seneca, for the appearance of the Prinzess Irene. Further up the bay near the quarantine station, the other welcoming boats had their station.

OFF FIRE ISLAND.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—The North German Lloyd steamer Prinzess Irene with W. J. Bryan on board was sighted about ten miles southeast of Fire Island at 11:45 a.m. The steamer will reach the quarantine station about 2:30 p.m. and should reach her dock in Hoboken about 5 p.m.

PASSED SANDY HOOK.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—The steamer Prinzess Irene with W. J. Bryan on board, passed Sandy Hook bound in, shortly after 2:30 p.m.

ARRIVED AT QUARANTINE.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—The Prinzess Irene arrived at quarantine station at 3 p.m.

BOSTON PARTY

MORAN'S FOLLOWERS MAKE AN EARLY START.

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—Prominent democrats in Massachusetts left Boston for New York to participate in the reception which will be tendered to William J. Bryan in that city tomorrow night. Among the first to get away this afternoon were District Attorney John B. Moran, candidate for the democratic nomination for governor, his campaign manager, John P. Farney, Col. C. Drinkwater and George Fred Williams, a personal friend of Mr. Bryan and one of Mr. Moran's supporters for the governorship.

Joseph Quincy, chairman of the democratic state committee, will go to New York tonight and he will be accompanied by Mayor John F. Fitzgerald, former governor William L. Douglas, who has declined to stand as a candidate against District Attorney Moran, will go over to New York tomorrow.

STRIKE BREAKER

Assaulted On His Way to Work

Patrick J. Smith, a strike breaker, so called, was assaulted in Wilbur street today. He had been engaged to work in the Lannon Consolidated Store Service plant and was on his way to work. Up to a late hour this afternoon the assault had not been reported to the police but it was stated that Smith had been administered a bad punning.

TWO DROWNED

MOTOR BOAT RUN DOWN BY FERRY BOAT.

NEW YORK, Aug. 28.—Fred Bagley and Norman Southworth, of Hoboken were drowned in the Hudson river early today when their motor boat was run down by the ferry boat Red Bank, of the Central railroad of New Jersey. Both men were thrown into the water, and although life preservers were thrown to them and life boats lowered from the ferryboat they sank before aid could reach them.

BRIGGS CASE

DEFENCE OPENS IN MAINE MURDER TRIAL.

BANGOR, Me., Aug. 28.—The government closed its case and the defense made a beginning today in the trial of Wm. H. Briggs, who is charged with the murder of Miss Maude B. Tuggett, whose death was the result of an alleged illegal operation. The state closed with brief medical testimony. The defense was outlined by A. L. Blanchard in his opening in the nature of an alibi. It was announced that Dr. Briggs would take the stand in his own behalf.

M. T. I. MEETING.

A regular meeting of the Mathew Temperance Institute was held last evening. President Lavin presided.

There were two propositions for membership received and three admissions.

Routine business was transacted. It is expected that matters of importance to the society will come up for consideration next month.

TEXTILE SCHOOL

Making Extensive Preparations For Opening

The Textile school is at present undergoing extensive improvements, which the management expect to have wholly completed before the opening of the fall term, which opens on Sept. 25th.

Twelve thousand feet of floor space in Kilton hall is to be partitioned off into rooms to be utilized as follows: Machine shop, cut and finishing; evening drawing school, including mechanical, architectural and free hand; students' assembly room and a general store room. Prof. George E. Perkins of the engineering department is the architect and William P. Connolly of Lowell the contractor.

The management is also adding an industrial chemical laboratory in the basement of Southwick hall and has just contracted for the complete ventilation plant.

Mr. George Huey of 7 Water street, Boston, is ventilating engineer, he has prepared the plans and is in charge of the installation.

The applications for membership so far show an increase over last year.

The extensive French spinning plant manufactured by the Alcover Construction company of Germany, has been received, set up and almost installed, making the Lowell Textile school complete in two leading systems of worsted spinning, viz. the Bradford and the French. Some interesting additions have been made to the instruction staff, including a professor of electricity and mathematics, professor of English, an expert in French spinning and an assistant in the weaving department.

The grading of the grounds has been continued this year and considerable sewer additions have been constructed.

CHAUTAQUA REUNION.

SOUTH FRAMINGTON, MASS., Aug. 28.—A special Chautauqua reunion has been arranged for next Monday, Labor Day, at Mount Wait, in anticipation of the summer Chautauqua assembly of 1907. Several speakers will address the meeting.

LIST OF DELEGATES

City Clerk Gerald P. Dohman has received the corrected and revised lists of delegates to the republican and democratic state conventions to be chosen on September 25.

The democrats have 32 delegates for the congressional, and 33 for the state and state officers while the republicans have 53 delegates for the senatorial nomination and 54 for the congressional nomination. In the representative fight the democrats have 26 and the republicans 37.

The following is the correct list:

ALEX. DUCHARME

Rescued Young Williams From Drowning

The heroic rescuer of Sumner W. Williams, Jr., five year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Sumner W. Williams of the Old Stand road, who had a narrow escape from drowning in Ward's ledge last Sunday, has been located. His name is Alexander Ducharme and resides at 8 Golding street.

He had been swimming in the ledge and after dressing himself at dawn under a tree to rest. He was doing off when he heard a loud cry and rushing to the edge of the ledge saw the struggling form of the Williams boy. Without waiting he dove into the water and rescued the Williams boy. He then carried the child to his home nearby and nursed in recuperating him.

"SHYSTER" LAWYER

GET HIM AT MEETING OF BAR ASSOCIATION.

ST. PAUL, Minn., Aug. 28.—Lawyers from nearly every state in the union are here to attend the 20th annual meeting of the American Bar Association which began today. The first session was called to order by George H. Peck of Chicago, president of the association.

A warm debate is expected when committee on insurance laws presents its report. Federal supervision over insurance is favored by a majority of the committee. In their report they hold that insurance is interstate commerce. A vigorous minority report will be sent to the association attacking the theory that insurance is interstate commerce and can be regulated by the federal government.

In the report of the committee on a code of professional ethics a striking rebuke is noted out to the "shyster" lawyer.

John B. Moran Issues a Statement

Regarding Remainder of the Democratic Ticket—Wants No Dictation and Will Make No Alliance With Any Candidate

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—District Attorney John B. Moran, prohibition candidate for governor and candidate for the democratic nomination for the same office, issued a statement today in which he says that neither he nor the members of his campaign committee will favor or oppose the candidacy of any man for the office of lieutenant governor, attorney general or any other office on the state ticket. The statement says that Mr. Moran will not make an alliance with any candidate for any office. It says: "The delegates in convention must be allowed, without dictation from any quarter, to make their own selection."

IN GREAT CITY OF NEW YORK

Ho is the Guest of Edward Cawley

Defective Patrick J. Mahoney of 324 precinct, 148 East 125th street, New York city, in visiting in this city and in the guest of Edward Cawley, Mr. Mahoney lived in Lowell for a period of five years. That was 25 years ago and this is his first visit here in 18 years. He is recognized as one of the best "baldy" men in the metropolis and has a splendid record for clever captures. He visited in police court today; heard Deputy Welch prosecute an attempt at murder case; met the general chairman of the police board and visited Mayor Casey at city hall.

To a representative of the Sun who had the pleasure of meeting him, Mr. Mahoney said: "I always loved Lowell, but I think there is no place in the world like New York. I would not care to live elsewhere. Lowell has improved a great deal within the last years of my life. This city is beautifully located; in fact I often think of her situation as being ideal. If you took to answer after annex until you had absorbed the town and village for miles around I would still be familiar with the city. During all the years that I have been away my mind has ever been refreshed by the hark back to the pleasant memories of my stay in this city. I was in police court today and was much impressed with the court, and officers and the surroundings. It seemed a little odd, however, to me to see other than the arresting officer, prosecuting. In New York the arresting officer does the prosecuting. In police court, I was glad to meet Chairman Jennings of the police court. I know 'Doc' when I lived in Lowell and he doesn't look a day older."

"I had heard a great deal about Lowell's young mayor, his integrity, fearlessness and ability. I met him today and I want to say that I believe everything good that I have heard of him. If I lived in Lowell I would urge him for a try in congress."

Mr. Mahoney is a great admirer of President Roosevelt having made his acquaintance and served under his administration when Mr. Roosevelt was a police commissioner in New York. President Roosevelt said: "Mr. Mahoney, 'On the salt of the earth, I have personal knowledge of his power of discipline, his fairness, executive ability, his fearlessness, honesty and sympathy. It is little wonder that the poor of the world love him. His courage and charity combined."

BOSTON MARKET

TONE IN COPPERS DISTINCTLY FIRMER.

BOSTON, Aug. 28.—Although the stock market was quiet in the early dealings, it showed decided and unexpected strength. There was no selling pressure, and in fact buying orders were in evidence. In coppers the tone was distinctly firmer and after the first hour showed increased strength on the sharp recovery in New York. In the first half hour only 13 different copper stocks were traded in but strength predominated. There was good buying of North Butte. In the general list the market was quiet but the tone firm.

TENNIS CONTEST

WILLIAM J. CLOTHIER WHO DEFEATED BEHR IN THE TENNIS FINALS AT NEWPORT YESTERDAY.

Clothier of Philadelphia Holds the Title

NEWPORT, R. I., Aug. 29.—The fine weather which has favored the national law tennis championships this year, continued today when the challenge round was played between Beals C. Wright of Boston, the present title-holder, and William J. Clothier of Philadelphia who yesterday won the all comers tournament. It was Wright's first defense of the challenge round in the national tournament. Both have been intimate friends for many years and veterans on the tennis court. They met last year in the finals of the all comers tournament. Wright, winning easily and defeating Belmont Ward of Orange, N. J., for the championship. Had Wright not sustained an injury to his hand last spring he would have been a strong favorite before the match began today. Whether he had succeeded in getting back into the form which he had reached before the injury was the question which puzzled close followers of the game. Here was also to be considered the case with which Clothier won the five matches in the present tournament which gave him the right of challenge. Nearly all his contests were straight set affairs, and but few went more than nine or ten games. It was the strength he had thus shown and the absence of fatiguing matches among those he has played during the past week which made the match today one of some doubt. The event proved as attractive to the spectators as the first round in years thronged to the tennis courts.

POLITICAL NOTES

More Candidates are Looming Up

AMES AND DUNBAR AT OUTING

Why Mr. O'Sullivan Balked on Badges

William T. Sullivan informs "The Sun" that he is not a candidate for the position of registrar of deeds and he ought to know.

Rep. John J. McManis has decided to be the democratic candidate for senator in the eighth district. He was twice elected to the house in a strong republican district. President Cole placed him on the committee on public health upon which he proved to be a valuable member. On the matter of appropriating $1,000,000 to prevent the pollution of the Merrimack river, through his efforts action was postponed and the city of Lowell was saved the payment of its proportionate share of the whole amount. Rep. McManis is well known and universally popular and will be a strong candidate.

Congressman Ames and Frank E. Dunbar are at the outing of the Lawrence and Haverhill clerks at Canobie Lake park today and will attend the outing of the Lowell and Nashua clerks at the same place tomorrow. Here's hoping they will say nothing that will necessitate affidavits, alibis or any other acrimonious allegations.

The $5 budget proposed by Humphrey O'Sullivan, for the legal profession will probably not materialize, for Mr. O'Sullivan while liberal with his money to a fault was not born yesterday. When he made his proposition to stand the expense of the Bryan committee there were some 20 or 30 members on the committee. Since then the number has grown to more than 100 in the vicinity of 200 and Humphrey is wondering if they can in the Boston clerk list on him. He will not allow a lot of fingers to have the laugh on him, and a badge as well. There will be no badges.

BRAKEMAN DEAD

Was Killed in a Freight Train Wreck

NEW YORK, Aug. 29.—Charles Mac-honey, a brakeman, was killed and two other brakemen, Jack Leonard and Patrick Macdonald, were seriously injured in a freight train wreck on the New York Central railroad at 174th street and Park avenue today.

The wreck was caused by the breaking apart of a freight train. Twenty-two cars broke away and then crashed into ten cars which still remained attached to the locomotive. An express train was stopped at the place where the engine touched the wreck, and the fire was sufficient to crush Mac-honey to death, he having fallen under the wheels of the engine.

When a coroner arrived on the scene he ordered the arrest of Engineer Victor, of the express, who, only a few minutes before had been receiving the congratulations of the passengers for saving their lives.

SHELDON, N. B., Aug. 29.—The fisheries department of the federal government has issued instructions to suppress the extensive poaching which it is claimed has been carried on along the New Brunswick shore of the Strait of Northumberland. Eight arrests of persons charged with fishing oysters illegally have been made here during the past few days. In attempting to arrest two oyster fishermen the government officer severely injured but not injured. One of the officers in returning the fire wounded a poacher in the leg. A government tug which has been sent out on patrol duty has destroyed a large number of lobster pots along the coast. The lobster fishing season closed on August 15.

I SHALL OFFER FOR SALE ON THE PREMISES, REGARDLESS OF THE WEATHER OR CONDITIONS, TWO CORNER LOTS ON CHELMSFORD AND JAMES STREETS.

The first lot is located on the easterly side of Chelmsford street and the southerly side of James street, with a frontage of 50 feet on Chelmsford street and 200 feet on James street, and contains about 10,000 square feet.

The second lot is located on the easterly side of Chelmsford street and the northerly side of James street, with a frontage of about 50 feet on Chelmsford street and about 200 feet on James street, containing about 21,000 square feet. The above two lots have the advantage of being located on the corner of two streets and would make excellent building sites for someone of moderate means, they being located within a few minutes' walk of the Shaw hospital and other industries in that section of the city. The street is paved, has curbs and sidewalks and all assessments are paid.

Remember the date and the hour of sale, as they will be positively sold for the best bid.

$50 must be paid on each lot as soon as struck off.

I HAVE HAD PLACED WITH ME FOR ABSOLUTE SALE AT PUBLIC AUCTION ON THE PREMISES, REGARDLESS OF THE WEATHER OR CONDITIONS, SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1906, AT 4.30 O'CLOCK, A COTTAGE HOUSE OF NINE ROOMS AND ABOUT 3500 SQUARE FEET OF LAND AT 778 MOODY STREET, VERY CLOSE TO THE TEXTILE SCHOOL.

The house consists of nine rooms, bath, pantry and an excellent cemented cellar; there is a good-sized hall, parlor, sitting room, dining room with a maple polished floor, large closet built in, a good sized kitchen, an excellent pantry with entrance from dining room and kitchen and a large bath room on the first floor. There are five large airy and well-lighted chambers on the second floor, and front and back stairs. There was a first-class steam plant put in about three years ago; it is lighted throughout by gas, is very conveniently laid out, and will have to be seen on the inside to be appreciated. There is a beautiful piazza running two-thirds of the way around the house. The windows and doors are screened and storm doors and double windows
